DC METRO PUBLIC-PRIVATE HIGH SCHOOL INVITATIONAL 2007™

Congratulations! We are pleased to inform you that your team has been nominated to participate in the first-ever DC Metro Public-Private High School Invitational. 60 of the area's top teams and programs have been invited to play in the tournament that will ultimately determine which team is the very best in the Washington, DC metropolitan area.

If you elect to enter, your team will be matched against one of the top public or private school teams in the region in bracket play with a chance to advance to the DC Final Four™ and to the ultimate game, the Metro Area Championship™. There is no team entry fee, all DC Final Four™ participants will receive team awards, Metro Area Championship™ participants will receive individual awards and players voted to the DC Metro All Area Team™ will receive shoes, bags and trophies.

The tournament tips at Progressive Christian Academy's newly refurbished gymnasium on Wednesday, March 21, 2007 (well after most sanctioned state, local and national championships) and runs through Sunday, March 25 when all teams will be invited to a special Athletics Recognition and Worship service hosted by Pastor Don Massey at Progressive Church in Camp Springs, MD.

As we must complete our brackets for the college coaches and scouting services that have confirmed they will attend, we ask that you confirm your participation in writing via e-mail at stormhoops@hotmail.com or via phone at 301-219-6391.

Congratulations again to you, your staff, your school and your team on earning an invitation to this special, first-ever event. Nominations for the 2008 DC Metro Public-Private High School Invitational™ will be accepted starting on Monday, October 1, 2007.
